

In the afternoon about 40 came & they let out their suppressed feelings of disappointment in tones of abuse against the oligarchy of the town for not using the attendance of their people. In the evening about 100 came with the expectation of hearing Miss Kelly.
On Friday there was a whig convention, & there were scarcely enough to count. Their resolutions spoke their feelings. I remarked to one of them that their convention might well be called "Anti Clerical, & anti Neworganization" I think they were extremely mortified & vexed at the result of their meeting. You observe that Garrison says very little about it. They called for no funds, & I question whether they can enough from their Fair to pay the expenses of their room & attendants. Please to let me hear from you soon

Yours in haste

Brother Phelps

I see by the Liberator a call has been issued by Chapman Kelly & Co - for a convention to discuss subjects of vital importance to the community. I have felt a strong desire to attend that meeting & give battle to the best individuals & institutions who will be there. But I am not sampson enough to stand alone. What say you to entering the lists in company?
I suppose that none but Abolitionists will go near them, & whether it is best to have any controversy with them is a question I am not prepared to answer. I wish to know how it appears to you & other far sighted & keen sighted men I cannot think that all that class of Refusers are prepared to give up the Sabbath & other religious institutions.
Perhaps some opposition may draw out the infidel portion & thus also win the more moderate. Be so good as to write me on the subject. Garrison's meeting here was a complete failure. On the first forenoon there were only seven present, & they did not organize
